ACCESS TO MEDICAL REPORTS ACT 1988

Rights and Procedures

Access to Medical Reports Act 1988, Access to Personal Files and Medical Reports (Northern Ireland) Order 1991

We need your consent before we can approach any doctor for a medical report about you. This is given by signing the declaration on this form. Before you sign, you should read this section carefully. It details your rights under the Act.

1. You do not have to give your consent. If you do not give your consent, we may be unable to proceed with your claim.
2. You can request to see the report before it is sent to us. We will inform the doctor that you want to see the report before it is sent to us and confirm your request in writing. You will then have 21 days to arrange with the doctor to see the report. If you haven't arranged to see the report within this period the doctor will send it to us.
3. If you indicate that you don't want to see the report, we do not have to tell you if we apply for one. You can, however, ask to see a copy of the report within six months of it being sent to us.
4. The doctor may charge you a reasonable fee if you ask to see a copy of the report.
5. If you have seen the report before it is sent to us, the doctor will require your written consent to send it to us. You have the right to ask the doctor to change anything that you consider to be incorrect or misleading. The doctor can, however, refuse to make any alterations. If the doctor refuses to change the report you may attach a note giving your views.
6. The doctor can refuse to let you see all or part of the report if, in their opinion, it is likely to:
 - Adversely affect your physical or mental health or that of others,
 - Indicate the doctor's intentions to you,
 - Reveal the identity of a third party who has given information about you unless they have consented to its disclosure or it has been supplied by a health professional involved in caring for you.

In such cases the doctor must notify you. You will only be able to see the remaining part of the report. If the whole report is affected the doctor will advise you and not send it to us without your written consent. If you refuse to give your consent we may be unable to proceed with your claim.

How will we use the information you give us?

We will only use your information on the basis that it is necessary to administer your insurance contract or help you make a claim. Where we need to pass information to other firms, it will only be for that purpose. These firms will be Insurers, other insurance brokers, firms handling claims, finance providers and firms that process or administer our records, including Federations / Trust Administrators.

When we contact you, it will either be for the above reason, or because we have a legitimate interest in marketing related products. For any other marketing it will only be with your consent and you will be able to withdraw your consent or unsubscribe easily at any time.

If we have to transfer information to a third country outside the EU, we will only do so if a similar level of protection applies. If we need to obtain information which is by nature sensitive, we will only do so on the basis that it is in the public interest - for example to fight crime, prevent fraud or to make sure insurance is available.

What type of personal information do we need?

- We may need personal details which might include details of lifestyle, family, finances, business or education.
- We will only collect what is necessary and will only keep it for as long as we are required to do in line with our data retention policy.

What other types of information do we need?

- Under certain circumstances we may also need to obtain information about Race or Origin, Gender, Religion, Health, Politics, Genetics, Trade Union Membership, Sex or Sexual Orientation.
- We might also need details of criminal convictions.
- We will only collect what is necessary and protect it with appropriate security measures.

How do we obtain your information?

- We may gather it from information you submit to a website, by telephone, mail, face to face or by email.
- We may receive it from insurers, other insurance brokers, firms handling claims, finance providers and firms that process or store our records, including Federations / Trust Administrators.

What are my legal rights?

- You can obtain a copy of your personal information from us without charge by contacting us at the address above. This may include the right to transfer information to other providers.
- You have the right to ask us to correct information.
- You have the right to ask us to delete your information or stop using it, unless it is necessary for us to retain it for insurance or financial purposes as set out in our document retention policy.
- You may have the right to object if decisions about you are made solely by a computer.
- You have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner at www.ico.org.uk, Tel 0303 123 11132.
